

Public Health Notice from the Chief County Assessment Office.

Beginning Monday, November 9, 2020 and until further notice, the Rock Island County Assessment Office and Rock Island County Board of Review will not be offering any in-person services, due to the increase of COVID-19 positive cases in Rock Island County. For the safety of staff and persons doing business with the office, no documents will be accepted in person.

- Assessments will be published on Saturday, November 21, 2020. Assessment complaints may be submitted by U.S. Mail or private courier (due to size and volume, assessment complaints cannot be submitted by fax).
- All other documents may be submitted by U.S. Mail, private courier, or by fax to (309) 558-3658.
- Property owners in need of assistance may call 309-558-3660, or email us at assessor@co.rock-island.il.us Thank you for your patience and understanding, and be assured that our staff remains committed to providing outstanding customer service virtually.

For more information, call (309) 558-3660.

Larry A. Wilson, Chief County Assessor and Clerk to the Board of Review.